Narberth Scouts in Annual Outing

Record Attendance at the Picnic Last Saturday

The Scouts' annual picnic was held last Saturday, and the boys, officers and committee were the guests of Mr. Claghorn and Mr. Balch at Franklin's Mill, seven miles from Salem, N. J. There was a record attendance of 36 boys and 13 older boys. Transportation was by automobile and ten cars were needed for the hauling. For these cars we are indebted to the following men, and due acknowledgment is made of their generous help, not only in loaning us the cars, but giving us their time and presence: W. J. Bailey, Robert Caldwell, Robert H. Durlin, J. M. Fair, Dr. Clarence T. Faries, J. W. Ferguson, W. J. Henderson, Perry Redifer, Jr., E. H. Sickels, Howard Vallette.

One of the features of the day was a treasure hunt, the treasure being a dandy baseball mitt. A fine trail was laid by Don Brown, Abe Lane, Al Osborne and Bob Patten and the lucky finder was Bert Taylor.

A ball game was also staged and it was some game. The opposing teams were:

Members of the Troop vs. Old Boys. This was strictly a pitcher's game, as shown by the score. Runs: Boys, 33; Old Boys, 29. The batteries were: Boys, Maguire and Ferguson; Old Boys, Fretz and Durlin. Umpires: Killifer and Henderson, Sr.

The boys enjoyed boating on the lake, swimming, and Ed Wolfe of course had to fish. The host, Mr. Claghorn, with the very able assistance of Mr. J. W. Ferguson, attended to the eats. The dishwashers were Fair, Fretz, Monington and Redifer. At six o'clock the boys cleaned camp and the caravan left for home about 6:30, after a thoroughly enjoyable day.

The Scoutmaster, Bill Durlin, and the Assistant Scoutmasters, Perry Redifer, Jr., and Bill Fretz, were in charge. The trip has been described by Scout Charles E. Claghorn, who writes:

"Here we go!" we shouted. Ten cars were ready and then we were off. The Boy Scouts were on their annual outing to Franklin's Mill, New Jersey. We got there at half-past ten and played around in the woods until lunch. After lunch we had a treasure hunt, and Bert Taylor won the prize—a good first baseman's mitt. We went out in the boats and had a good time. The most fun was the swing and the blanket. We gave a hearty swing and the boys went sailing through the air. I hope sun-kissed liked the toss in the blanket, too."

Finances

The Boy Scouts have received fourteen additional subscriptions since the last report. These names are posted with the other names on the bulletin board in the Post Office and in front of Mr. Nash's real estate office.

When the Community Building Committee have the Boy Scouts listed for a $2,500 subscription, it calls to mind the story about the aged dandy who was accosted on the street by a traveler asking for change of a ten-dollar bill. We can only reply as the dandy did: "No, sah, but I thank you for the compliment just the same." If the treasurer had $2,500 in his charge, he would be on his way to California for a vacation. As it is, he cannot get much farther than Ardmore.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Strickler, of Woodside avenue, Narberth, recently announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Ruth E. Strickler, to Charles W. Hoffman, of Altoona. Miss Strickler has been the Society Editor and office manager of The Pennsylvania News since the paper started nearly a year and a half ago. Mr. Hoffman was formerly director of athletics on the Baltimore Division, and is now traffic manager for the Emmons Coal Mining Company, Altoona.

Choral to Repeat Last Concert

Open Air Event Coming This Month

In keeping with its policy as an organization for community service, the Choral Society made the announcement this past week that its next concert is to be given in the open air and the whole town invited. Friday, May 23, is the date, and the field of Mr. A. J. Loos, bordering on Shirley Road, is the place. This is the first time in some years that such a thing has been attempted, so special effort will be made to inform the townspeople of the time—7:15 P. M. "Dinner early tonight" should be the farewell words on every lip as the family goes forth to greet the world that morning.

Mr. Loos has always been a loyal and generous friend of the Choral, and his offer of the grounds was accepted with much appreciation on the part of the active members. Every facility will be provided for the comfort and convenience of the audience, and a special section will be reserved for the sustaining and associate members and their friends. For those who may have to forego their dinner to be there on time, there will be a refreshment booth conducted by the ladies who are active members. The early hour was selected in order that the program might be completed before darkness falls and to avoid the inconvenience that might result from a heavy dew. Should rain prevent the concert, it will be given within the ten days following.

Many requests were sent to the officers and members of the Choral for a repetition of the Ardmore concert because the storm had kept such a large number away. The Board of Directors therefore recommended that the program follow that of April 6 as far as practical, and Mr. Bentz has arranged accordingly. However, there will be several new numbers, as will be an unneeded next week. Remember the date—May 23; and the time—7:15 P. M. (daylight saving time).

On Sunday afternoon, the 18th, the Choral will be the principal attraction at the anniversary celebration at Fairview Sunday School. Automobiles will gather at the Y. M. C. A. at two o'clock, and if any friends can help with their machines it will be appreciated if they will call Narberth 2252-W and leave their names.

At its last business meeting Monday night action was taken approving the plans recently submitted by the Committee of Ten for the new community center. While it was felt that a larger auditorium is greatly to be desired, yet a majority were in favor of the endorsement, and in the motion which was carried there was a request that if any economies could be effected in the present plan the desire of the Choral for a larger place should be given equal recognition with other changes.

AND THE LAST IS THE BEST

The May Dance of the Tennis Club on the 17th is the last of the season, and the Entertainment Committee are going to do themselves proud as it were, as no more elaborate plans were made or carried out for the Dinner Dance in October. The decoration scheme of the stage and hall will excel anything heretofore, as the entire effect will represent—what's the use of telling beforehand?

When all's said and done, the announcement which is being sent to members and friends tells the story, and as the lady said about the huge power plant at Niagara Falls, "Isn't it cute?" We take the liberty of quoting it below.

Hello, Neighbor!
EVENT—May Dance, Narberth Tennis Club.

TIME—Saturday, May 17th, at 9 P. M.

PLACE—Elm Hall, Narberth, Pa.

REASON—To afford you and your friends a good time.

MUSIC—None other than the famous Mike Fisch with Mike at the hat.

EFFECT—Good time, good fellowship, good for the Club, and good for you.

FINIS—Would tell more, but modesty forbids. You should know your own finish.

Yours for Happiness,
E. P. DOLD,
J. B. WINE,
J. W. DARVILLE,
Committee.

Bring a friend, your neighbor and his wife and usher the season in among friends, and amid jollity. See you when Mike Fisch starts his artists, at nine, and don't dare to wear a dress suit.

ANNUAL LUNCHEON

With the membership larger than ever, the Women's Community Club of Narberth will close another highly successful year with a Club luncheon next Tuesday afternoon, May 13th, at 12:30 P. M. A number of good things in a wide variety are on the program.

The new officers, elected at the last meeting, will be installed at this time, and the election of the new board of directors held. The yearly reports of the officers and chairmen will also be heard.

A wealth of good music will be heard from the club chorus, which will, in addition to the third act of "Rose o' Plymouth Town," provide the entertainment for the afternoon.

The play, under the direction of Mrs. J. F. Donnelly, dramatic chairman, was to be produced in its entirety on May 7th, but was cancelled, owing to an accident to one of the principal members of the cast. The third act which will be produced on Tuesday will be in full costume, and promises to show once more what the Narberth Women's Club can do in the way of dramatics.

BASEBALL TODAY

Don't forget the baseball game Saturday, May 10, when Narberth plays the fast Baker Field Club of Philadelphia. The game will be played on the new ball park, at Windsor and Wynnewood Avenues, at 3:15.

Next Wednesday evening we will have the United States Naval Home Club here, the game being called at 6 o'clock. Be sure and be on hand for both of these games and help our boys win. Last Wednesday the Newton Coal Co. Club was hooked, but for some reason or other, they did not show up. A "scrub" game was held, though, for practice.

Considerable hard work was done to get the field in shape for the opening of the season. Bill Newburg, Bob Compton, Fred Walzer and John Miller, assisted by a large group of fans, laid out the diamond, erected a grandstand, and installed an attractive player's bench in jig time.

Next Friday night at Davis' store the drawing will be held for prizes offered by local merchants. Tickets have been sold to raise money for uniforms and equipment, and a generous response has been noted.

Davis store has offered two prizes in the shape of baseball gloves to the two boys selling the most tickets. Maguire, Harris, Edrop and Leonard are the ranking contestants at the present writing. The prizes offered are:

Ton of Coal, Narberth Coal Co.

Rug, Narberth Carpet Co.

Set of Savill Spigots, Henry and Compton.

Bathroom Accessories, Cook Brothers.

Electric Iron, Narberth Variety Shop.

Electric Lamp, Narberth Electric Shop.

Box of Cigars, John J. Cabrey.

Basket of Fruit, Sam Strauss' Fruit Store.

Two pound "Sampler," Davis' store.

Basket of Potatoes, Howard F. Cotter.

Pie, Arcadia Restaurant.

Necktie, S. J. Thomas.

Candy, Wm. S. Howard.

Candy, C. H. Crane.

DANCING EXHIBITION

On Saturday afternoon, May 3, in the Community Club Room, Miss Carter's Dancing Class gave a most pleasing exhibition. The tiny tots in their flower-colored dresses danced a Greek dance, minuet, Egyptian dance, character dance to the tune of "Nellie Kelly" with solo by Regina Chappette. The entertainment closed with solo dance by Miss Carter and grand march. Mrs. Alexander's work in organizing and managing the term of lessons is much appreciated. It is hoped to form a very large class in the fall.

AN ENJOYABLE SMOKER

Tuesday evening of last week the members of St. Margaret's Holy Name Society and their friends held a smoker and entertainment in the Parish Hall. Mr. Joseph P. Gaffney, City Solicitor, was the guest of the evening. Mr. Gaffney made a very inspiring and interesting address to the members and their friends, pointing out what benefits accrue for the spiritual man through membership in the Holy Name Society, and urged every man in the parish to become a member.

A pleasing entertainment was furnished for the social session, the following taking part in the same: Mr. John Sheehan, of Chestnut Hill, and the Messrs. Rudolph, Quinn, Hipkiss, McGarrity, Cabrey, Kerrigan, Kelly, Leonard, McNally, and Master Ben Lenahan, of St. Margaret's Parish. The Rev. Richard F. Cowley, pastor of St. Margaret's Church, was present and gave expression to his appreciation of the affair.

MUSIC FESTIVAL MALE CHORUS REHEARSES EVERY TUESDAY

Last Tuesday evening, May 6, at Masonic Hall, Ardmore, the Male Chorus of 150 voices started rehearsing for the Main Line Music Festival to be given on Saturday evening, June 7, outdoors, on the Bryn Mawr Polo Grounds, for the benefit of the Bryn Mawr Hospital Children's House. Hereafter rehearsals will be held every Tuesday evening, 8 o'clock, at Masonic Hall, Ardmore, unless singers are notified to the contrary.

Clarence C. Nice, musical director, is holding membership in this Male Chorus open only until Tuesday evening, May 13. Qualifications for membership in this Chorus are: a pleasing tone quality and ability to read music. Applicants should immediately get in touch with their local chairman, who is Mr. R. A. Cuthbert, Merion 614R, for Narberth.

FIREMEN'S BANQUET

The Firemen's Banquet will be held tonight in Elm Hall. It is scheduled to begin at 7:00.

Provision has been made for a large attendance, as Chief Noel has received many acceptances. Those who have not yet signed up are urged to phone him at once, to see if room is still available.

POSTPONED

Owing to the illness of members of the cast, Mrs. Keim's Bible Class have found it necessary to postpone their production, "Aunt Jerusha's Quilting Party" indefinitely. It had been scheduled for next Friday.

Margaret Eyre to Lead Club Next Season

An important business meeting of the Juniors, held at the home of Miss Virginia Davis, Iona Avenue, Thursday, May 8th, was well attended by the club members.

Election of officers for the coming year were in order, and spirited voting led to the following results:

President—Margaret Eyre.
Vice President—Ruth Haws.
Second Vice President—Virginia Davis.

Corresponding Secretary—Marie Meisen.
Recording Secretary—Marion Trotter.

Treasurer—Madeline McCoy.
In the case of Miss McCoy, this was a reelection, since she held the position of treasurer this year.

Mrs. Fretz, who was in charge of the play, "The Charm School," recently given by the Club, gave a comprehensive report on the financial returns of the affair and it was found that quite a nice sum has been deposited toward our building fund.

A vote of thanks was extended to all those who sacrificed time and energy to participate in the "Charm School," both as principals, extras or hard working customers and stage managers.

Special attention was at this time directed to the services of Mrs. James Donnelly and Mrs. William Fretz. Mrs. Donnelly, who is one of the two advisors to the Juniors, devoted her energies, evening after evening, to the coaching of this play, and it is due in a large measure to her assistance that the play was "the most successful given in Narberth for some time." (Quotation not given by a Junior.)

Mrs. Fretz, as director in charge, bore the full responsibility for the numerous, initiating and necessary details which constitute so large a part in the preparation for any play.

Particular thanks was also given to Miss Louise Ferina, who, on but two weeks' notice, turned the exacting role of the School Secretary into one of the hits of the school.

All in all, the Juniors were well pleased with the show itself, the cast, the financial returns and the reception it received from Narberth, all of which means that the townspeople can anticipate something even better in the dramatic line next year.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

On Monday, May 12, will be held the regular meeting of the League in the Y. M. C. A., at 2:45 P. M.

Mrs. Edward V. Hartshorne, of Havertown, who attended the National Convention recently held in Buffalo, has very kindly consented to report this convention.

As Mrs. Hartshorne has another engagement, she will appear first on the program and members and friends are urged to be prompt in attendance.

Mrs. A. B. Ross will outline Borough government. If you do not know how this body functions, now is the time to find out and ask questions.

The parliamentary drill will be continued by Mrs. E. V. Bachelor.

There are various interesting announcements, discussions, etc., to come before this meeting.

Come—you will find it worth while. Members Attend Spring County League Meeting

The Narberth League, as usual, was well represented at the annual spring luncheon held at the York County Club on Tuesday, May 6. Those attending were Mrs. Carroll Downes, Mrs. Tristin Du Marais, Miss Anna MacKeag, Mrs. William B. Goodall, Mrs. E. C. Bachelor, Mrs. Edgar Cockrill, Mrs. Edward Griswold, Mrs. Andrew Greene, Mrs. Edwin Dold and Mrs. C. P. Fowler.

An excellent program was presented. Miss Gertrude Ely, chairman of the county, reported the convention. Mr. MacDonald, of New York, outlined and analyzed in splendid detail the Dawes report, and Dr. Hull, of Swarthmore, who was one of the outstanding speakers at the recent meeting held in Washington discussing the World Court, covered this subject very exhaustively.

One heard on all sides expressions of appreciation and gratitude for the privilege of listening to such able speakers on such intensely interesting subjects.

The Church School Service League of All Saints' Church cleared over $100 at their recent bazaar. With this money they expect to purchase cushions for the step at the communion rail.

ANSWERS BONUS CRITIC

To the Editor of Our Town:

I have read with considerable interest Mr. George Shinn's letter in your issue of May 3 regarding the American Legion and the Soldiers' Bonus issue. Mr. Shinn's letter seems to have been motivated by an article which appeared in a previous issue, which attributed the bonus question as a cause for lagging on the part of the local post. In this, as well as the other points, he raises, I do not agree, and submit the following as proof of the fallacy of his contentions.

First. The local post has had but two resignations that I know of due to its bonus stand, and those are Mr. George Shinn and S. S. White, Jr.

Second. The total paid up membership of the American Legion, as of March 16, 1924, was $25,000, as compared to 750,000 on that date a year ago.

Third. The American Legion has always stood for adjustment of the compensation of World War veterans. In the St. Louis Convention in 1919, the Minneapolis Convention of 1920, the Kansas City Convention, 1921; the New Orleans Convention, 1922, and the San Francisco Convention, 1923, unanimous resolutions were passed favoring adjusted compensation. Our local post in 1919, 1920 and 1923 went on record unanimously upholding the National Convention's resolution.

I would also call Mr. Shinn's attention that both the major political parties had in 1920 planks in their national platforms endorsing adjustment of the soldiers' compensation, and I dare say he voted for one or the other. Warren G. Harding, four days before his election in 1920, addressing a body of ex-service men in Cincinnati, said: "A Republican House has passed a bonus bill, and it is now up to the Senate. I for one think this bill ought to pass."

Mr. Harding was motivated to veto the measure in the last Congress by a statement from Mr. Andrew Mellon, in which he stated "we are facing a deficit of over $650,000,000 for the fiscal year, with still larger deficit for years to come." When this deficit turned out to be a surplus of over $329,000,000 Mr. Mellon presented a new set of figures, running up the cost of the bonus, which Chairman Green, of the House Ways and Means Committee, called "ridiculous." He ran this cost up, basing his claim on the interest increase which would result, he claimed, from the loan feature of the certificates.

Now that the loan feature is removed, he has another set of figures based on the average time of service as 535 days, a figure too ridiculous, it would seem, for anyone to consider. These are the reasons the Congress has passed the so-called bonus by the greatest majority yet carried of over 8 to 1.

America is not so easily turned aside from a traditional policy of generous treatment of her defenders. The American Legion has fought and won a glorious victory over a group of predatory interests who have sought to convert our fundamental doctrine that human rights stand prior to property rights. Andrew Mellon, it should be remembered, made millions of dollars through his industries—the Koppers Company, the McClintock-Marshall Construction Co., and the By-Products Coke Corporation—in the same emergency that took the very wages away from over four million of his countrymen. In these days of so much materialistic political philosophy it is well for us to consider the high idealism that carried our forefathers through in the days of our national swaddling clothes. In the Congressional Library at Washington you can find a message from George Washington to his Congress, asking them to vote a bonus of $100 each to the Revolutionary veterans, in which he states:

"No man would enjoy tax exemption more than I, but this, gentlemen, is no ordinary debt—it is a debt of honor—and I would be ashamed of a country that would not honor it."

SCHOOL NEWS

On Friday, the second, the Narberth Junior High School baseball team played the Lower Merion Junior High School team, with a result of 24-0 in the visiting team's favor.

Miss Church takes the Freshman gym class for walks on Friday afternoons instead of having the class in the gymnasium. This is greatly enjoyed by all.

Miss Jenkins and Miss Church are going to conduct the members of the Eighth Grade and Freshman Class on a visit to the observatory at Swarthmore College on Tuesday night, May 13. The observatory is considered the best one east of the Rocky Mountains.

On Monday in Assembly, Mr. Wilson requested all of the children to look at home and see if they had any discarded clothing. If they had, he asked that they bring them to school on Wednesday, so that they might be sent to the poor children of the Near East. These poor little children have few clothes and less food. We should strive to help them all we can. Many bundles of old clothes were brought by the pupils, and it is hoped that the garments will be of use to those unfortunate ones so far away.

On Wednesday afternoon, May 2, Narberth School will play Montgomery Day School, away from home, in baseball. Everyone hopes for victory.

On Monday, May 5, Miss Church and Miss Jenkins took the Eighth Grade Science Class for a visit to a hydraulic ram which proved difficult to find. After searching for a while, they decided to visit the pumping station, but a while later the ram was found. Though the walk was long, everyone enjoyed it.

JUST STORIES

Do you realize how we all dote on stories? No matter what age we have reached. We're just made that way, and can't help it! Here's a little Indian tale you will like:

A young, timid deer was prancing playfully one night in the pale moonlight—when a youthful Indian lad came upon the scene—stealthily—intent upon making his first kill, which would entitle him to be classed as a warrior—failure meant disgrace. For a while the Indian pretended friendliness and romped with the animal—and then when the psychological moment arrived, took advantage of the confidence of his playmate—drew his bow—and made his first kill—marching triumphantly homeward with his prize and to parental commendation.

The moral in this little story is that the tragic sacrifice of one creature is always linked with another's joy and victory.

This story is being told to you now, but it will be danced for you on Saturday evening, June 7, outdoors, on the Bryn Mawr Polo Grounds, when the three lovely Marmain Sisters will appear for the first time in Philadelphia on the program of the Main Line Music Festival—a feast of music and art outdoors. And other unique dances (such as the "Dance of Shiva," a Hindu god)—each with a pleasing, vivid story behind it—will be presented by these three refreshing drama dancers who have toured from coast to coast and abroad, where "twas said of them: "Thrills follow thrills so closely you haven't time to catalog them!"

"Tired eyes light with a glow as the Marmains interpret"—"Truly without peers." And the best part is that they are 100 per cent. American artists—Western born and educated in Boston.

Nor is this the only unusual feature which Clarence C. Nice, the musical director, has arranged for this Outdoor Festival on June 7—a male chorus of 150 voices will be heard—Renee Thornton (Mrs. Richard Hageman), dramatic soprano, will sing for the first time in Philadelphia, 50 members of the Philadelphia Orchestra will play and accompany the soloists, and there will be one other noted soloist announced in next week's issue of this paper.

Mr. Nice has spared no effort in planning this program of headliners for the benefit of the Bryn Mawr Hospital Children's House, which is being given under the auspices of a committee of eighty prominent women of the Main Line and vicinity, of which Mrs. Archibald Barclay is chairman.

Male singers please see separate notice in this issue concerning rehearsals of Male Chorus for this Music Festival.

MAY PARTY

The Women's Auxiliary and Westminster Circle of the Presbyterian Church will hold their regular meeting and a May Party for the new members of the church on May the 14th. All the women of the congregation are invited to attend and participate in the continuous round of fun. Luncheon will be served at one o'clock.

Spring housecleaning is being done. Of course we have the necessary aids in the shape of brooms, mops, pails, cloths etc., but we wish to emphasize the necessity for painting at this time. The man who first said "Save the surface and you save all" saved many a property owner a lot of unnecessary expense.

BOOK REVIEWS

The O. Henry Memorial Award Prize Stories of 1923, chosen by the Society of Arts and Sciences, is a book composed of a group of the best short stories written by American authors during the year 1923. Special interest centers around the stories receiving the money awards. To "Prelude," by Edgar Valentine Smith, went the highest prize of $500. This was published in "Harper's." The second prize of $250 went to "A Friend of Napoleon," by Richard Connell, and appeared in the "Saturday Evening Post," and a special prize of $100 to "Towers of Fame," by Elizabeth Irons Folsom, for the best brief story under 3,000 words.

There are sixteen stories in all and an explanatory introduction by Blanche Colton Williams, chairman of the Committee of Awards.

"Four Bells," by Ralph D. Paine, is a thriller. There are dead men, pistols and daggers, shipwrecks, Spanish gold and love. For anyone who wants an evening's entertainment with excitement and adventure thrown in, here is the book.

"Chinese Lanterns," by Grace Thompson Seton, is a very fine description of China and her people. The author's greatest wish while in China was to witness the Royal Wedding; another desire was to meet the President of the Chinese Republic. In both of these she was successful. She touches on revolutions, schools and employment in that country, and many things that are peculiar to the Chinese. There are some seventy or eighty illustrations to augment the word pictures.

"Mah Jong," by Foster, who is an authority on games of all kinds, will be a great help to those who are starting in the game and to those who are polishing off. For the beginners the book starts with the number and names of the tiles—how to make and how to break the wall, and goes on through the various stages, giving plenty of space to the art of counting, which is so frequently discussed by Mah Jovgers. There are 262 pages of helpful advice for all who follow this newest game.

"Historic Lower Merion and Blackley," by Dora Harvey Develin, is a book which will make the reader eager to walk or motor around Montgomery County, farther out on the Main Line, and through Fairmount Park. Each page is filled with interesting facts about historic places so near our home town, and many of the pictures will bring to mind places that many of us have seen but did not know about. All Narberthites know the General Wayne Inn and the Merion Meeting House, but here is told the history of these places, of the Hanging Rock on Montgomery Pike, of the Black Horse Tavern, and of the Old Mill where the Continental money was destroyed. This book is of historic interest to all, but more intensely interesting to those who live in the Lower Merion section.

SCHOOL 100 YEARS OLD

The Fairview Union Sunday School, near Narberth, will commemorate its hundredth anniversary on Sunday, May 18th, at 2 o'clock (Daylight Saving Time.)

This old Sunday School was founded in 1824 by one Aaron Keech, a blacksmith, who organized the school primarily for the purpose of educating the youth of those days. As a result of this beginning, the Sunday School also came into being, and has been carried on ever since.

The members of the Sunday School also plan an afternoon and evening of pleasure on Saturday, May 17th, and all friends of the Sunday School are invited to a supper and entertainment there at that time.

The Sunday School will no doubt be attended by large crowds. Among those who will participate in the services is the Narberth Choral Society.

CITIZENS' MILITARY TRAINING CAMPS

Watch the bulletin boards.

SUMMER ASH COLLECTIONS

The winter collection of ashes will be discontinued, beginning with the week of May 12, 1924, and the summer collections will be as usual, the last week of each month, according to an announcement made this week by Street Commissioner George B. Suplee.

June beginning with the week of 30th.

July beginning with the week of 28th.

August beginning with the week of 25th.

September beginning with the week of 29th, and continue on the winter collections each week.

LOWER MERION HIGH SCHOOL

Net Men Down Camden

The Tennis Team, having the examples of the track team and the baseball nine to select from, chose to emulate that of the cinder path performers, and as a result, brought home a 5-0 victory over Camden High. The matches were played at the Narberth tennis courts Saturday afternoon. Wells Wanamaker, Dave Bevan, Dick Reinbolt and Custer all turned in victories in the singles and Bob Savill and Mitchell made it a perfect day when they also vanquished their opponents in the doubles.

Mrs. Mark Hubbell, of Chestnut avenue, is visiting relatives in Peoria, Ill.

Perhaps there is yet time to amend the past and add those precious years to Mother's life.

WORK~

In city streets, on country highways, in farm structures and industrial plants, small and large, concrete is being more and more used. Why?

First because it meets the modern necessity for economy. Atlas is cheaper today than thirty years ago. And second because man's work must be safeguarded.

Structures built with Atlas protect both the worker and his product, for they are permanent and fire-safe. Tell your building material dealer about your building plans and ask him about materials. He can be of real help.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Looking Ahead

LAST Spring a total of 350,000 people were disappointed in not being able to obtain deliveries of Ford Cars and Trucks, as orders were placed faster than cars could be produced.

The demand for Ford Cars and Trucks this Spring will, according to all indications, be far greater than last Spring.

Winter buying has been increasing at a greater rate than ever before.

Actual retail deliveries the past 60 days totaled 308,170 Ford Cars and Trucks, an increase of 1,961 a day over a year ago.

Over 200,000 people have already ordered Ford products on our purchase plan, the majority of whom will take delivery in the Spring.

The above facts are given with the suggestion that you list your order promptly with a Ford dealer if you contemplate the purchase of a Ford Car or Truck for use this Spring or Summer and wish to avoid delay in delivery.
